2024-25 Rankings – Dec. 31, 2024 (Poll #6)

As the 2024 calendar year closes and the second half of the 2024-25 season resumes, the top two teams remain the same in the latest NABC/Division II rankings. However, a wild week of action before Christmas led to a significant shakeup throughout the rest of the poll.

A total of 13 teams ranked in the Dec. 17 poll lost games during that week, including six that were among the top 10. The list of setbacks was headed by No. 3 West Liberty's loss to Missouri S&T in Las Vegas, which also vaulted the Miners into the rankings for the first time since Dec. 17, 1996. Minot State won at No. 6 MSU Moorhead on that same day, allowing the Beavers to move up seven spots to fifth – the highest Division II ranking in program history. Pace also reached a high-water mark in the poll as it stayed undefeated to move up to seventh.

Missouri S&T is among four teams making its poll debuts this week, as it is joined by No. 19 Columbus State (first since Dec. 13, 2016), No. 21 Lenoir-Rhyne (first since Nov. 27, 2018) and No. 25 Valdosta State (first appearance in over three seasons).
