

National Association of Basketball Coaches NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Rankings

2018-19 Rankings – Feb. 12, 2019 (Poll #11)

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Northwest Missouri State, the last undefeated team in NCAA Division II, held onto the top spot in the new NABC/Division II men's basketball rankings, but plenty of shuffling took place after that as the second-, third- and fourth-ranked teams all suffered losses in the last week.

St. Edward's was knocked off at Oklahoma Christian, while Bellarmine lost at Lewis and Indianapolis and USC Aiken fell to Francis Marion – who entered the coaches poll for the first time in 15 years after completing a sweep of the Pacers last week – which allowed West Liberty to vault to the spot right behind the Bearcats in the new poll.

Indiana (Pa.), Nova Southeastern and West Texas A&M all moved back into the top five as well due to those losses, while St. Edward's fell back to No. 6. USC Aiken dropped to seventh and Findlay moved up a spot to eighth, just ahead of Bellarmine.

Queens (N.C.) rose one position to 10th this week, as did the next three teams in the rankings – Colorado School of Mines, Point Loma and Morehouse. The next three teams all made five-spot advances, starting with Saint Martin's at No. 14. Daemen checks in at No. 15 this week and Lynn rose to 16th.

Southern Nazarene dropped seven spots following a home loss to Southeastern Oklahoma State, while Davenport jumped up seven positions to 18th. Florida Southern, the third member of the Sunshine State Conference in this week's poll, came in at No. 19 and Ashland completes the top 20.

The last five teams in this week's poll are UNC Pembroke, Chaminade, Virginia State, Saint Anselm and Francis Marion; the Patriots' last national ranking in the coaches poll came at the end of the 2003-04 campaign.

The NCAA will release its first regional rankings of the season on Wednesday, Feb. 20.
