2014-15 Rankings – Feb. 24, 2015 (Poll #13)

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Florida Southern retains the top spot in the latest NABC/Division II rankings – following a week in which five of the top 10 teams suffered losses to shuffle the look at the top of the poll.

The Moccasins held onto the top spot after wins over Eckerd and Lynn, but second-ranked Augustana saw its school record 19-game winning end Saturday at Winona State, moving Bellarmine to the second spot in the poll.

Losses by Barry, Indianapolis, Metropolitan State and Angelo State also shook up the top 10, as Lincoln Memorial moved up to third, West Liberty to fourth and Minnesota State-Moorhead, who leads the nation with 29 wins, vaulted to fifth.

Augustana landed at No. 6 this, with Tarleton State, Wisconsin-Parkside – in the top 10 for the first time in school history -- moving up four spots apiece to the next two positions. Barry came in at No. 9 this week, while Mount Olive is 10th. The Trojans are making their first top 10 appearance since December 2005.

Colorado School of Mines, who took over first place in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference over the weekend, moved up three spots to No. 11, followed by Central Missouri, Azusa Pacific and a trio of teams that dropped from the top 10 due to losses last week, Metropolitan State, Angelo State and Indianapolis.

Lake Superior State checks in at No. 17, while Colorado-Colorado Springs, UNC Pembroke and Western Oregon complete the top 20.

The final five teams in this week's poll are University of the Sciences, California Baptist, Southern Connecticut State, Indiana (Pa.) and Cal Poly Pomona.

The next poll will be released March 3. The NCAA will release its second regional rankings on Wednesday, Feb. 25.
