

National Association of Basketball Coaches NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Rankings

2014-15 Rankings – Jan. 27, 2015 (Poll #9)

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The top four spots went unchanged this week in the new NABC/Division II men's basketball rankings, but losses by three of the top 10 from a week ago shuffled the teams below those four atop the poll.

Indianapolis continues to hold the top spot for the second week in a row heading into a road contest Thursday at No. 20 Wisconsin-Parkside, while Lincoln Memorial, the only other team in NCAA Division II without a loss, retains the second spot in the poll.

Florida Southern and Barry stayed at third and fourth, respectively, while Augustana moved up to fifth as a result of a West Liberty loss last week.

Bellarmine and Minnesota State-Moorhead also moved up one spot as well, while Angelo State makes its first appearance in the top 10 in school history by going three spots ahead to eighth.

Colorado-Colorado Springs returns to the top 10 as it moved up to ninth and West Liberty landed in the tenth spot in this week's rankings.

Metropolitan State and Tarleton State also made a three-spot jump in the rankings to 11th and 12th, while Colorado School of Mines – one of the teams in the top 10 that lost a week ago – dropped to 13th. Azusa Pacific moved up to 14th and Mount Olive rose a spot to No. 15.

California Baptist fell from 10th to 16th this week after its loss to Dixie State and is followed by BYU-Hawaii, Minnesota State, UNC Pembroke and Wisconsin-Parkside.

The final five teams in this week's poll are Indiana (Pa.), Ferris State and three teams that were unranked a week ago – St. Edward's, Western Oregon and Texas A&M-Commerce. St. Edward's returns to the rankings after falling out last week, while Western Oregon is in the Division II top 25 for the first time in school history.

The next poll will be released Feb. 3.
