Shorter's Phil Taylor Selected DII Conference Commissioner's Association
Men's Basketball Ron Lenz Player of the Year

EDINBORO, Pa. – Phil Taylor of Shorter University was today named the Division II Conference Commissioners Association 2017 Men's Basketball Ron Lenz National Player of the Year. Taylor headlines the D2CCA Men's Basketball All-American Teams. Voting was conducted by the NCAA Division II Sports Information Directors from institutions and conference offices.

Taylor was joined on the first team by Northwest Missouri State's Justin Pitts, Matt Bingaya of Fairmont State, California Baptist's Michael Smith, and Dustin Sleva of Shippensburg. Pitts and Smith earned honorable mention All-American honors in 2016.

Delta State's Devin Schmidt is the only other returning All-American from 2016. A first team selection a year ago, he was named to the 2017 third team.

Taylor, a 5'9" senior who played two seasons at Shorter after transferring from Florida International, was previously named the D2CCA South Region Player of the Year. He enjoyed a prolific scoring season while leading the Hawks to a 16-12 record. He finished as the leading scorer in Division II at 34.0 ppg., a figure which leads all three NCAA divisions.

In fact, he leads Division II in four different offensive categories, and is in the top five in three others. Not only is the Brooklyn, N.Y. native the top scorer in the country, he also leads in total points (919), free throws made (297) and free throws attempted (344).

Taylor ranks second in minutes per game (39), third in field goal attempts (607) and fourth in field goals made (263); shooting 43.3 pct. from the field, and connecting on 39.2 pct. on 3-pointers. He shot 86.3 pct. from the line. He added 4.6 rebounds per game, 4.3 assists per game, and 1.9 steals per game.

He etched his name in the Gulf South Conference record book in 2017, finishing with the GSC record for single season total points and points per game; while also tallying the most points in a single game when he scored 62 points against Carver College on November 28. He would score 50-or-more points in three more games during the season.

In 2015-16, Taylor broke the GSC records for free throws, only to break those records again this season. He also set the single-game high in both categories when he went a perfect 26-for-26 from the line against Valdosta State on February 23.

During his two seasons at Shorter, Taylor tallied 1,647 total points, an average of 29.4 points per game. He made 539-of-641 free throws (84 pct.).

Pitts is one of five players on the D2CCA All-American teams who will take part in this week's Elite Eight. A 5'9" junior, he has helped Northwest Missouri State to a 32-1 record and the number two seed in the Elite Eight. The Bearcats will play St. Thomas Aquinas, who is led by second team All-American Justin Reyes.

Pitts is a two-time Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Player of the Year and was the D2CCA Central Region Player of the Year. He is averaging 20.5 ppg. and 5.2 assists, with 18 games of 20-or-more points. In just three seasons, he is already the Bearcats' career scoring leader with 1,850 points.

Bingaya is a 6'4" swingman who has paced Fairmont State to a 32-2 record and the number one seed in the Elite Eight. The Falcons will play Rollins in a quarterfinal game on Wednesday, March 22. The senior was the D2CCA Atlantic Region Player of the Year and was the Mountain East Conference Player of the Year. He is shooting 59 percent from the floor while averaging 19.4 points and 7.3 rebounds. He paces a Fairmont State offense that averages 96.2 ppg., the third-highest figure in Division II.

An honorable mention All-American a year ago, Smith is a 6'4" guard who led California Baptist to a 26-5 finish and a fourth straight NCAA West Regional appearance. The senior was the D2CCA West Region Player of the Year and a two-time PacWest Conference Player of the Year. The Lancer's and PacWest's all-time leading scorer with 2,031 career points, he ranks third in Division II in scoring at 24.9 ppg., with 22 games of 20-or-more points. He added 6.3 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game.

Shippensburg's Sleva rounds out the D2CCA first team. A 6'8" junior, he helped the Red Raiders to a school-record 27 wins and a first-ever NCAA tournament victory as they went dancing for the first time since the 2005-06 season. The 6'8" junior was named the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Eastern Division Player of the Year after averaging 21.7 points, 11.2 rebounds, and 3.4 assists per game. He is the only NCAA basketball player averaging 21 points, 11 rebounds and three assists per game while having made at least 55 three-pointers. He set the SU single-season record for points (674) and ranks second in the country with 20 double-doubles as the Red Raiders finished with a 27-4 record.

In addition to Bingaya, Pitts, and Reyes playing in the Elite Eight, other 2017 D2CCA All-Americans still battling for the national championship include third-teamers Luquon Choice of Lincoln Memorial and Gokul Natesan Colorado School of Mines.

The Division II Conference Commissioners Association All-America Men's Basketball Team is sponsored by the Division II Conference Commissioners Association. The Division II Conference Commissioners Association encourages and promotes Division II athletics and high standards of sportsmanship as important elements of higher education. The CCA is a key communications link among the conferences as they discuss views, policies and regulations that impact Division II intercollegiate athletics and works closely with the NCAA as a communications channel to NCAA Division II member colleges and universities.
