Metro State College senior Brandon Jefferson has been named the 2014 Division II Bulletin Player of the Year.

The RMAC Player of the Year, Jefferson led the Roadrunners to a 29-game winning streak before Metro State fell in the national semifinals. He averaged 21.6 points, the highest single-season scoring average in school history, 3.1 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 2.4 steals while shooting 45.5 percent from the field. His 687 points this season rank first in school history and he broke both the career and single-season free throws made records this campaign.

Jefferson headlines the DIIB All-American team, where he was joined on the first team by Cedric Harris of West Liberty, Vincent Bailey of Lincoln Memorial, Garret Kerr from University of Sciences, and Southern Indiana's Aaron Nelson.

Division II Bulletin has named a Player of the Year every year since the 1991-92 season.
