

“Joe Miner” Sports Camp

The 31st annual “Joe Miner” Sports Camp will be conducted during the week of May 30 - June 2, 2006. This camp is a series of physical development programs offered by the University of Missouri-Rolla’s physical education department. This program is for girls and boys entering grades 3-8 in Fall 2006 and offers sessions of instruction and play in a number of sports activities including Archery, Baseball/Softball, Golf, Soccer, Basketball, Swimming, Tennis, and Touch Football.

Equipment Needed: All campers are requested to wear gym shoes and should bring the following items: swim suit and towel for recreational swimming, fielder’s glove for baseball/softball, and tennis racket and tennis ball for tennis. All other equipment will be furnished. Golfers may bring their own clubs if they wish. However, clubs will be available for those who do not have them.

Instructions: Each camper will participate in one activity each hour during camp. Place an “X” in the block that corresponds to the activity you desire.
