2023-24 Rankings – Jan. 30, 2024 (Poll #10)

West Texas A&M won a top-five matchup last week over DBU and remains atop the new NABC/Division II rankings for the second week in a row, but losses by the three teams immediately behind it created a shuffle at the top end of the new poll. Minnesota State, who also won a matchup of top-five teams last week by beating then-No. 3 MSU Moorhead, rises to the second spot in the rankings, while Nova Southeastern moved up to third and Fort Lewis jumped four spots to fourth after its road win last week over then-No. 7 Colorado Mesa.

DBU dropped just one spot to fifth after bouncing back with a win at Lubbock Christian on Saturday to round out the top five. The only top 10 newcomer is Colorado School of Mines, who is the holder of the second-longest active winning streak in NCAA Division II at 14 games (West Texas A&M has won its last 15 contests). Cal State Dominguez Hills and St. Thomas Aquinas return to the rankings, while Fort Hays State is in the top 25 for the first time this season.
