Nova Southeastern's Dallas Graziani Named 2025-26 Ron Lenz National Player of the Year

INDIANAPOLIS – Nova Southeastern University senior guard Dallas Graziani is the 2025-26 Division II Conference Commissioners Association (D2CCA) Ron Lenz Men's Basketball National Player of the Year and headlines the Men's Basketball All-America Teams as selected by the NCAA Division II Sports Information Directors Association (D2SIDA).

It is the second consecutive year a Nova Southeastern student-athlete has been named the D2CCA Ron Lenz Men's Basketball National Player of the Year. The Sharks' MJ Iraldi won the award last season.

Graziani, who was also a First Team D2CCA All-American, was the D2CCA South Region Player of the Year after earning Sunshine State Conference Player and Defensive Player of the Year honors.

The Pembroke Pines, Florida, product enters the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship's Elite Eight, leading all Division II ball handlers with a 3.56 assist-to-turnover ratio. Graziani ranks fifth in Division II with 6.3 assists per game and is 20th with 2.4 steals per game. He is also averaging 20.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game while shooting 45.2 percent from the floor and 34.0 percent from three-point range for the Sharks.

Six student-athletes named to the 2025-26 D2CCA All-American Teams will be competing this week in the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Elite Eight in Philadelphia: Graziani and teammate Ross Reeves, a second-team selection; second-team pick Marcus Tomashek of Michigan Tech; third team honorees Tyree Campbell of Cal State East Bay, Terry Coner Jr. of Oklahoma Baptist, and Zach Philipkoski of Daemen.

The Division II Conference Commissioners Association All-America and All-Region Basketball Teams are sponsored by the Division II Conference Commissioners Association (D2CCA). The teams are voted on by the members of D2SIDA, NCAA Division II Sports Information Directors Association.

The Division II Conference Commissioners Association encourages and promotes Division II athletics and high standards of sportsmanship as important elements of higher education. The CCA is a key communications link among the conferences as they discuss views, policies, and regulations that impact Division II intercollegiate athletics. It also works closely with the NCAA as a communications channel to NCAA Division II member colleges and universities.
